

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Wednesday, April 26, 2006

GOVERNOR ANNOUNCES WINNERS OF VOLUNTEER SERVICE AWARDS
Sixteen awards were presented in eight categories

PHOENIX – Governor Janet Napolitano and the Governor’s Commission on Service and Volunteerism today announced the 16 winners of the 2005 Governor’s Volunteer Service Awards in eight categories. The winners will be honored at a reception hosted by the Governor and the Governor’s Commission on Service and Volunteerism at the State Capitol in central Phoenix.

“Every year, thousands of Arizonans give their time and energy to important needs and causes across the State,” said Governor Napolitano. “Today I am especially proud to honor these 16 individuals, groups and businesses whose exceptional work and dedication has strengthened all of our lives.”

The winners of the 2005 Governor’s Volunteer Service Awards are:

Youth Category

- Evan Jameson Spencer (Flagstaff)
- Christopher T. Campas (Sierra Vista)

Youth Group Category

- TAPP Players Drama Troupe (Prescott)
- Prescott Valley Youth Chamber (Prescott Valley)

Adult Category

- Rodney Glassman (Tucson)
- Raymond Klein (Patagonia)

Adult Group Category

- Community Assistance Program, Phoenix Fire Department (Phoenix)
- Steve Zimmerman and Jim Vail, Volunteers in Policing, Scottsdale Police Department (Scottsdale)

Large Business Category

- Comcast (Tucson)
- Wells Fargo (Phoenix)

Small Business Category

- Prescott Gateway Mall Management Team (Prescott)
- R and R Partners (Scottsdale)

National Service Member

- Stephanie Ann Jones – AmeriCorps*VISTA (Prescott Valley)
- Virginia Skovira and Diana Denwood, AmeriCorps*VISTA (Tucson)

Service-Learning Category

- Davida Guse, Red Cross Club of Granada East School (Phoenix)
- Sandra Muñoz, Maricopa Medical Center Service-Learning Volunteer Program (Phoenix)

Presenting co-sponsors for the 2005 Governor's Volunteer Service Awards are LandAmerica and SCF Arizona.

For more information on the 2005 award winners or the Governor's Volunteer Service Awards contact Lauren Kielsmeier at (602) 542-3495 or visit www.volunteerarizona.org. Nomination forms for the 2006 Volunteer Service Awards will be available online later this spring.